Challenges Senator Smoot to Wells and Cutler Camps Show Joint Debate.

MEETINGS TO BE IN EAST

SUBJECT TO BE MORMON INTER-FERENCE IN POLITICS.

When Senator Smoot prepared his realized it would cause some uneasiness in the Kearns wing of the Republican party. In case any lingering doubt exsted in the mind of the junior senator the following letter from Colonel Matthew A. Daugherty has probably dispelled it. The letter, which was mailed to Provo on Friday, takes the form of a challenge, thus:

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 18, 1904.

To Hon. Reed Smoot, Provo, Utan:
My Dear Sir-I read your letter in the issue of the Deseret Evening News of Aug. 18, 1904.

It was intended. In order to bring the matter before the bar of the American people as judges, and to the end that there be no further bypocrisy or dissembling, and as the questions reach beyond Utah and threatens the very foundations of this republic, I challenge you to joint debate in states east of the Mississippi river in this campaign, beginning not later than Sept. 15, 1904.

Basis of Proposition.

Basis of Proposition.

You to mantain that the Mormon church does not, or that you, as an aposile of the Mormon church, or as an agent of the Mormon church, first having obtained its consent to enter politics, or in your capacity as a private citizen of the United States, do not dictate Republican politics in the state of Utah as stated in your letter of yesterday. I to maintain that the Mormon church, through yourself as agent, and otherwise, and you in whatever capacity you may choose to assume, both dictate Republican politics to the Mormon people in the state of Utah. Both being Republicans, you a Mormon and I a Gentile, my first vote having been cast for the lamented Garfield for congress in Ohio in the early seventies, and having voted the Republican ticket ever since, and as this question is one of the issues now on trial before the committee on privileges and elections of the United States senate and of interest to the whole people of this country, to take the matter entirely out of politics, I suggest that our debates be called and arranged for at times and in states to be agreed upon by the Interdenominational Council of Women.

Should this not meet your approval

ANXIOUS TO SECURE WEBER

GOVERNOR HAS PERSONAL IN-TERVIEWS WITH DELEGATES.

In the calm that followed the battle letter to the Deseret News he doubtless of Friday night, new courage appeared to come to the three camps constituting the forces that will battle for the nomination for governor in the Republican convention on Thursday. The Cutler men felt strong enough to claim that eighty-three votes in Salt Lake county were absolutely piedged to their man; the Wells men sald fifty-four out of the 125 are sure for Wells; the Ham-mond men said a careful study of the returns showed something like thir-ty-seven will certainly be cast for

One of the Cutler leaders yesterday ventured the prediction that Cutler will/have not less than 300 votes in

"We have got the convention now, if we can only hold it," he said.

The Wells men scouted the idea.

"That leaves 160 for Wells and Mammond," said one of the governor's men,

"Well, if Wells and Mammond control only 160 votes in that convention we will be willing to give all of them to Hammond. We won't ask for any for ourselves."

The interesting feature of the day.

rech of the Weber county delegation met in cause and salt Lake were Governor Wells. L. R. Rogers, Internal Revenue Collector E. E. Jenkins, Carl Badger, Smoot's secretary, and a deputy internal revenue collector, State Treasurer John De-Grey Dixon and others.

The governor's party, comprising the scene, arrive-converse.

The governor's party, comprising himself and Mr. Rogers, was first on the scene, arriving before the caucus convened, while the Cutter representaconvened, while the Cutter representa-tives did not get in until later. The governor consulted the entire Weber county delegation during his stay in Ogden and was present at a meeting of the delegation called informally to discuss matters.

Why They All Went.

Why They All Went.

The governor was drawn to Ogden by a story that had reached Salt Lake to the effect that Moyes was trying to secure instructions for himself, while leaving the delegation free to vote for any candidate for governor. The trip is said to have convinced him that the story was unfounded, and it is said he secured a further promise that no trading in governors will be done by the Weber county boys.

Although one enthusiastic Cutter man yesterday intimated that Cutter could give Weber county to Wells and then win out, it is not believed the leaders of the Cutter crowd are in accord with Colonel Daugherty came to Utal about four years ago and has been one of the stalwarts in the Kearns camp since that time. The colonel takes the position that Smoot created the opening for the challenge when he sent his letter to the News. The colonel insists he is in earnest and points to his record as a stump speaker in Nebraska to jussify his proposition to enter a joint debate. The colonel claims to have spoken twice daily over 46.000 square miles of territory while he was a camidate for congress in the Sixth Nebraska district in 1894. He maintains that he could get Smoot to accept the challenge he would do many things in an oratorical way to the junior senator from Utah.

Smoot has not yet replied to the colonel's letter, and many believe he will up the combination would easily be the greatest Republican show on the road. If some clever manager could get should fit the performance ought to go to crowded houses everywhere, because Smoot is one of the most widely advertised men in the country, and if the colonel make then the other end of the motioning made things as hot as he says he can make then the other end of the colonel make then the other end of the colonel make the the colonel make the state of the colonel state of the colonel make the colonel make the state of the

SHEETS AGAINST WELLS.

Former Chief of Police Has Unique Allegiances.

George A. Sheets, so far as known, is the only Kearns-Cutler man in the wide, wide world. It is revenge that has made him thus, and the story, as told around town yesterday, is quite yarn.

The returns from the Forty-fourth whatever happened, Sheets would never vote for Cutler, but that is just what he will do, according to one of his friends A year or two ago, when Mr. Sheets was at one end of a bitter municipal fight as a result of his effort to be chief of police, it is said a delegation of Sheets' friends called on Governor Wells to enlist his support for Sheets. The governor is represented as having declined to mix in the municipal fight in any manner whatever. His declina-tion aroused Sheets' antagonism and he determined to get even. His chance came Friday night. L. C. Kelsey was the Wells man before the primary. Sheets was supposed to be in line for Kelsey, but at the eleventh hour Sheets became a candidate in the primary himself and won out over Kelsey by a vote of 63 to 52. Back of Shects were State, Statistician Charles De Moisy, one of Smoot's messengers; Frank G.

man. The colonel can grasp an ordinary proposition with readiness, but he has an unasual one before him now. He is unable to decide whether he should arrange to call a meeting of the state committee, of which he is a member.

the state committee, of which he is a member.

Last week Colonel Meteer decided to call a meeting of the members to arrange for temporary officers. The story was given full publicity at that time, but it was supposed everything had been settled when "Fussy Jimmy" snnounced that he would call a meeting of the committee. Yesterday Colonel Meteer heard that a meeting had been called for the afternoon of Aug. 24 at the county building, by Anderson. The call, he was informed, had been mailed to members on Aug. 17. Colonel Meteer was advised that his copy of the call had been addressed to his headquarters in the Atlas block. It had not reached him yesterday and on inquiry he ascertained that Jesse Smith of Davis and A. Fred Wey of Salt Lake, two other committeems. Salt Lake, two other committeemen, had not received notice of the call. The situation impressed the colonel as peculiar.

The colonel is considering the advisability of getting Messrs. Smith and Wey to join him in issuing a call for a meeting to be held at the Young Men's Republican club on the afternoon of Aug. 24.

But the colonel is puzzled and does not attempt to conceal the fact. Incidentally the colonel says that while he is obliged to the friends who have

J. S. Wilber is Arrested on Commercial Street by Police.

John S. Wilber, who has just arrived from Arizona, was arrested at $120 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Patrolman Furster for drawing a gun on Bessie Grey of 40 Commercial street. The man was in the house walting for a companion, who was in another room. The girl asked him to buy a drink, whereupon Wilber became angry, drew a big revolver and threatened to blow her head off. His companion and Ella White, an inmate of the house, came and tried to remonstrate with him, but he stood all three off, frightening the girls into a yoom and the other man out of the house. The girls called out of the window for help, whereupon Wilber quickly took to his heels. Policeman Furster caught him before he had gone far and brought him to the police station. Wilber kept saying to the patrolman on the way to the lockup, "I'm from Kentucky, sir, I guess you ve made a mistale in arresting me."

When searched at the station a valuable watch and $21 was found on Wilber. He was blooked on the charge of carrying concealed weapons.

No Trial of Strength in Weber County Caucus.

ENDORSEMENTS GIVEN

WARDLEIGH PLACED AT HEAD OF DELEGATION

(Special to The Herald.) Ogden, Aug. 20.-The caucus of Weber county's delegates to the Republican state convention held today in the court house did not precipitate the contests that were known to be imminent and which had been gathering here during the pust week. Part of this was due to the fact that conference after conference had been held within the past thirty-six hours and some of the troubles temporarily smoothed over; another and far weightier reason was that none of the factions cared to risk a sho wof strength by attempting to put through resolutions of incorsement or of attempting to enforce the unit rule.

Some of the earnest partisans of A. W. Agee claimed that a point was scored for their candidate for supreme judge first, in turning down Stewart for chalirman, and later the defeat of a resolution proposed by A. H. Moyes that a "trading committee be appointed. R. A. Moyes, caudidate for state treasurer, expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the outcome.

That R. A. Moyes has a big majorit, in the delegation who will support him is assured. That all of them will not support him to the extent of being traded in his interest is also assured, though quite a number will go to that extent. Trouble at Huntsville

Trouble at Kuntsville

After calling the conference together Chairman Agee explained at some length a complication that had arisen in Huntsville which resulted in the sending of two delegates from district No. 2 of that place. The county chairman and secretary in issuing the official call had designated Wangsgaard's hall as the place to hold the primary for district No. 2. Since the last primaries Huntsville has become a city, and among the changes was one which changed the boundaries, making the "city" part district No. 1, and the outside residence district No. 2. Consequently a confusion of ideas resulted as to what district constituted No. 2. The Huntsville party chairman took it upon hunself to call the primary at the home of W. G. Smith. Part of the voters went there and chose Mr. Smith as the delegate. Another part went to Wangsgaard's hall, and failing to get in, went to a nearby school house and chose State Senator David McKay, bishop of Huntsville. Mr. McKay did not reside in the district, hence he was accredited by a primary held in the wrong place, and another had elected a delegate residing without its borders. Bishop McKay had been slated for the position of chairman of the delegation. The fudicial convention had recognized the delegate chosen at Smith's house. The question was about to precipitate a lively scrap when McKay withdrew and Smith was seated.

Frank Trumbull, president of the Colorado Midland and of the Colorado & Southern, was in the city yesterday, accompanied by his wife, Judge and Mrs O. E. Lefevre of Denver and Frederick and Miss Ella Sisson, nephew and niece of Mrs. Trumbull. The party was on the way home from the Yellowstone Park. They were taken in charge here by General Agent Hoyt Sherman and shown the sights of the city. A trip to Saltair and a visit to the tabernacle to hear the organ recital were included.

Speaking of railroad matters. Mr. Trumbull said his roads had ordered large supplies of rails and other supplies and that they were to be greatly improved. He flatly denied at the same time that the Burlimgton was to take over his roads in its campaign in the west. He characterized all such stories as bald fakes.

La Grande, Ore., Aug. 20,—F. H. Holzheimer, who was nominated for congressman by the Democratic state convention held at Lewiston, Ida., has declined to make the race on account of the nature of the campaign which he understands is to be waged in Idaho this fall. His letter to Chairman Jackson follows:

"Hon. C. H. Jackson, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, Boise City, Ida.—My Dear Sir: When I accepted the congressional nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the state of Idaho, in convention assembled, I fully believed that even though the resolution on the Mormon question had been incorporated for our state platform, the matter could be settled and handled in a manner which would be satisfactory and honorable to all concerned. Now, however, conditions have arisen because of the fact that at the meeting of the Democratic state committee held in Lewiston, after the convention adjourned, the campaign, as it is said, is to be waged on a moral plane as against the Mormon people, and the said resolution is to be made the paramount issue.

"This being true, and as I am not in sympathy or in full accourt with the state committee to place upon our state ticket some one who can consistently makes the campaign as outlined, and believe in our grand cld Democratic states, in the state committee. I believe in our grand cld Democratic states, in the state of Idaho, know-tity and the principles for which it stands, and will do all in my power for its success in the state of Idaho, know-tity and the principles for which it stands, and will do all in my power for its success in the state of Idaho, know-tity and the principles for which it stands, and will do all in my power for its success in the state committee. I believe in our grand cld Democratic state committee, Boise of Idaho, thouse the party and the principles for which it stands, and will do all in my power for its success in the state committee. I believe in our grand cld Democratic state committee, and the principles for which it stands, and wil same, I cannot, in honor to myself, after the position I took in the Democratic convention, both in committee and upon the floor of the convention, remain upon the ticket and make the necessary campaign outlined by our state committee, and therefore must, at this time, and therefore do now tender to the state committee, through you as chairman, my resignation as the congressional nominee of the state of Idaho upon the Democratic ticket. Having a deep sense of gratitude for the high honor conferred upon me, I arrived at this conclusion only after careful deliberation. The confidence shown me by my party is one for which any man may justly be proud, but the only way I can ever hope to retain that confidence in the future is by taking this step, which I believe to be the only honorable one that I can pursue.

"This action of mine is a purely personal one and will affect me only, but will make it possible for the state committee to place upon our state ticket some one who can consistently make the campaign as outlined, and be in full accord with the state committee. I

WING to the fact that our extensive store alterations do not being until Thursday and the further fact that many requests from country towns to continue the sale prices have come to us, as they had "just noticed the advertisement," or that "we can not be there until Monday," and many other like expressions, we have decided to continue the sale prices on limited number of fine pianos, organs and piano-players until Wed-

This sale has been a great boon to a very large number of piano and organ buyers. Were we to tell you the exact number of people who have supplied their homes and families with instruments since this sale was inaugurated, and give you the gross saving made by all these buyers, we fear it would appear as a fit subject for unbelief.

Suffice to say that figures tell no untrue story; the price tags taken from delivered instruments plainly indicates the number sold, also the great discounts given each purchaser, which approximates fully 33 1-3 per cent off the regular low selling value So much for the past ten days' sale, selling, buying and saving, now for three days, or until 8:30 Wednesday evening, we will offer the same discounts on good pianos and organs that we have been offering during the sale. In act we have re-marked a limited number of fine instruments at a much lower figure than the previously cut prices, and we offer them on extremely easy terms if desired. Your favorite instrument must be here for the stock comprises the ball, Steck, Knabe, Chickering Estey, Mason & Hamlin, Heller, Whitney, Fischer and other pianos; Estey, Kimball and Mason & Hamlin organs, all marked in plain figures, showing actual discounts of one-fourth to onehalf off, the lowest obtainable prices.
